- * Here state whether superintendent, board member, or employee of board.
-  Here state the names of each board member served by the same method. If different methods of service are used for some members, then separate affidavits must be completed to indicate the names of the board members served by one method and the names of members served by another method.
-  Here state in full the actual method used in serving the written call of the special meeting (e.g., personal service, delivery at board member's residence, U.S. Mail, e-mail, etc.). We recommend serving board members the call at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting, if by personal service or e-mail, or 72 hours in advance of the meeting if by U.S. Mail.
