Superintendent's Report

Bryan Mey, Superintendent reported the following information

Summer School is going well. We have approximately 160 student enrolled K-12. We have had many high school students complete course credits this summer, and able to get caught up to grade level.
Elementary Students are also benefiting immensely from the small group atmosphere and one-on-one attention provided by the teachers.

Correspondence

The Nutrition Group Magazine highlight Hesperia Schools in their most recent publication. Students made cards on Hot Lunch Staff appreciation day, and a photograph of staff and students was published in the magazine with a brief caption.
